

William Lloyd Garrison
(of Boston U.S.)

Adelphi Hotel
Liverpool

MS. A. 1.2 V. 39 P. 131 (b)

4 St. Peter's Terrace

Cambridge

Aug. 22, ~~1877~~.
1877.

Dear Mr. Garrison

As I am

252

not able to share in the privilege, that all my family is, at present enjoying, of welcoming you again for a short time, before your final departure —
I hope you will allow my thanking you directly for it.

I am afraid many of us younger people living in a comparatively happy & prosperous time - are likely to forget the duty of rather stern & deep & concentrated me to express in writing, What is just now uppermost in my thoughts. I would thank you earnestly for the opportunity, you have given us of seeing you again. The impression made has been a deep lasting one - one

for which I feel truly grateful: so forgive

ple to ha earnestness. When we meet with a mind like yours, though it is a living reproach, I hope, it stirs us to more efforts. Please forgive my outspokenness: I felt impelled to say a word about what your presence has been to me.

earnestness. When we meet with a

Please remember me most kindly to your son; it has been a subject of great regret to me, that your Cambridge visit was frustrated. I envy my home people that they will see the last of you
of any of your English friends. I trust, my

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

ru
ha
H
ap p
f
Z
S
a
p

English visit has been happy satisfactory

throughout & that it has afforded you a rich store of pleasant recollections for the future.

That it may yet be my good fortune to meet you again is the earnest wish of yours faithfully

M. Borchardt

22.8.'77. —

